NORMAL SCHOOLS OF STATE MAY HAVE ANOTHER YEAR ADDED TO COURSE

Meeting Called for Latter Part of This Month at Harrisburg, When Principals Will Take Up Matter.

DR. DAVIS WILL ATTEND

For the purpose of discussing the feasibility of adopting a four year course the principals of the Normal schools of the State of Pennsylvania will hold a meeting sometime during the latter part of this month at Harrisburg. Dr. H. B. Davis, of the Southwestern State Normal school at California, is expecting to attend the meeting.

The chances are that the four year course will be adopted, inasmuch as the three year course now in vogue is said not to be complete enough in the special studies, and not strong enough for the granting of professional certicfiates. Another matter which it is considered in need of regulation is the residence rule. This would in all probability be so formulated that it would require the last two years of the course to be spent at the school from which the student graduates.

The rumor that such a course was to be adopted has spread among the attendants of California Normal, and many expressions of protest have been heard among the students. If the change should be effected it would probably mean another year for the students who would have graduated in 1911, and during that year there would probably be no graduation class.

PHILLIPS' CLUB WILL BE GOOD ONE THIS YEAR

After spending three days at his home, "Bill" Phillips, the manager of the Wheeling club of the Central League, went to Wheeling last night to be ready to receive the players of this year's team who are to report tomorrow. He returned on Thursday from Hot Springs, where he spent a few weeks with president Barney Dreyfus of the Pittsburg champions and worked out some himself.

Phillips thinks he has a good bunch signed for his Wheeling club, although practically all of them are new. For catchers he has Stratton and Stanley; for pitchers, himself, Wolfe, Richardson, Compton, Doak, Fosberry and Kellum; first base, Tarleton; second base, Shelton, short stop, Jewell; third base, Bisland, Duffy, Graff and Knisely; outfielders, Gray, Donohue, Sentz and Tate. He expects to get a pitcher from Pittsburg.

The Central League season will open May 4, but previous to this time the Wheeling club will play a number of exhibition games, among the teams it will play being Duluth, Youngstown, Canton, Morgantown, East Liverpool, and Bellaire. Last year Phillps won the pennant for Wheeling in the Central league.

TWENTY CASES OF MEASLES REPORTED TO HEALTH AUTHORITIES SINCE SATURDAY

A measles epidemic is raging in Charleroi at the present time, and Health Officer Darby and the board of health is hard at work trying to prevent its spread. Since Saturday morning there have been 20 cases reported and quarantined, making in all up to the present time about 25 cases in the town.

The majority of the cases are at the southern end of town, and it is thought the contagion spread from this section. Up to Saturday morning there were only about 4 or 5 cases in all to the knowledge of Health Officer Darby, but since then he has been kept busy placarding houses where the disease exists.

BOY MAY BE MADE CRIPPLE FOR LIFE THROUGH ACCIDENT

Bicycle and Auto Collide at Washington Avenue and Fifth Street.

DR. SMITH ATTENDS LAD

Young Fellow Sustains Compound Fracture of Arm--Dragged Several Feet.

When a bicycle on which two boys were riding and the automobile of L. A. McVey of Charleroi came together at the corner of Fifth street and Washington avenue yesterday evening one of the boys, Constantine Patrich, 13 years old, sustained injuries which may cripple him for life. The other boy on the bicycle was Steve Kaulkey.

Kaulkey owned the wheel and Patrich, who is small for his age, was riding on the handle bars. They were going out Washington avenue towards Eighth street while McVey was coming up Fifth street. He was turning the corner, it is claimed without tooting his horn, and without paying the proper attention to the course, when the collision came, the boys not having noticed the approaching automobile, according to their story, until it was within 12 feet of them. It was impossible to avoid the accident, and the boys were struck and dragged several feet. When picked up one of Patrich's feet was through the front wheel of the bicycle and the other through a front wheel of the automobile. He was seen to be badly injured and was carried into the office of Dr. J. K. Smith.

There it was discovered that he had sustained a compound fracture of the right elbow. Dr. Smith set the bone and he was taken home.

McVey was arrested later for reckless driving and was to appear last night before Burgess Risbeck, but failed to show up, and will be given a hearing later.

Notice.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Co. has notified us that they will arrest any of our paper boys found selling papers on their property for trespassing. All patrons who have been in the habit of buying papers from our boys at the station will find the boys on the corner of Fifth and McKean.

Boy Runs Into An Automobile

For not taking better care as to where he was going a small Slavish boy of Ninth street whose name is unknown, has a very sore hand this morning. The boy was riding on Ninth street, and was in behind a wagon. At the corner of McKean avenue he turned out from behind, but failed to notice the approach of Earl Piper's Buick automobile, and a collision resulted. The boy stuck his hand through a light and the breaking glass cut him somewhat. He was otherwise uninjured. Dr. Repman dressed his wounds.

YOUNGSTERS SHOW UP WELL WITH THE PITTSBURG CLUB

In speaking of the work being done by the Pittsburg champions of the National League, "Bil" Phillips, who has just returned from there says everything is going nicely. The youngsters are all doing well, and especially, according to his opinion, is Webb, the youngter he secured from Grand Rapids for Drayfus, making good. Willis Humphries, the California boy is showing good form, but according to Phillips, he was unfortunate in getting where there were so many extra good pitchers. McKechnie, a protege of Phillips, on the Wheeling club, "will stick," in the opinion of the Wheeling manager, having shown the best of form so far in practice. McKechnie formerly played in the P. O. M. League, and is well known in Charleroi.

ALLEGED MURDERER BROUGHT FROM THE SOUTH SIDE HOSPITAL

Thomas Anderson who, it is alleged, shot and killed George Clark in a duel at Bulger on March 28, was brought to the county jail yesterday from the Southside Hospital, Pittsburg, where he has lain since the day of the tragedy.

Anderson was considered by the hospital authorities as strong enough to be moved to jail. He was placed in a cell immediately upon reaching the jail and will be treated hereafter by the jail physician. The bullet which entered Anderson's head over the eye has not been located. Anderson was committed to jail on a charge of murder by Coroner James Heffran following the inquest into the death of Clark.

DISTRICT MINERS CONVENTION WILL BE HELD TUESDAY

The annual convention of the United Mine Workers of the Pittsburg district will be held in Moorehead hall, Pittsburg, tomorrow. Routine business will be gone through and internal affairs discussed. It is probable that the wage controversy between the miners and operators will be taken up.

"EXTRA SPECIAL VISITING DAY" BEING OBSERVED IN CHARLEROI SCHOOLS TODAY

What might be termed an "Extra Special Visiting Day" is being held today in the Charleroi schools, for the benefit of those who were unable to visit the schools on Display and Parents Day, Friday. The hours of visitation are 2 to 3 o'clock this afternoon and 5:30 to 7 o'clock tonight.

It is expected that a number of teachers from various places along the valley will be here tonight to view the display of the work done during the past term. The work being displayed in the schools is that done by the pupils in their regular routine during the year, and is an evidence of much worthy effort on their and the teachers' parts.

Monongahela Stores Nearly All Occupied

The Monongahela Times says that with but two exceptions every store room in that town is occupied, and one of these is held for sale, while the other may be rented at any time. It is hard for any one to get a business property in the mercantile district of the city, which means that the trade territory will have to expand. The improvements being made by property owners to store rooms and store front in Monongahela has been quite noticable of late.

PRETTY FLOWERS PROVE TOO MUCH OF TEMPTATION

Some of the farmers complain that the Charleroi school children who went out into the country last week for wild flowers to decorate the school houses, trespassed on private property and did damage. At the Rodgers farm in particular some rhododendrums that J. S. Rodgers secured in West Virignia at considerable trouble and expense were cut off close to the ground and taken away. These shrubs are hard to get started, and the ones that had taken root were destroyed.

Some other flowering trees about the farm were also damaged by having limbs broken and pulled off. Mr. Rodgers requests that any more such expeditions for flowers and shrubbery should ask permission of the owners before they invade their premises.

GRAND ARMY MEN DO HONORS AT GRAVE OF LATE VETERAN

The last rites were said over the body of Joseph E. Abell, late of California, yesterday, and interment was in the Monongahela cemetery. A Grand Army Post did honors to the dead at the grave.

On Saturday evening services were held at the late home in California, being conducted by Rev. Murray, of Monongahela, and Rev. J. C. Renton, of California, assisted by Rev. A. M. Doak of Charleroi. There were a large number of friends present at the services and the California stores were closed for an hour and a half during the time. The floral tributes were many and beautiful.

DID NOT APPRECIATE WORDS OF LOQUACIOUS TONSORIAL ARTIST

Because of a disagreement between H. C. Fowler, a barber of Charleroi, and Frank Morgan, a porter, on Fifth street yesterday afternoon, the borough treasury was enriched to the extent of $11.70, fine and costs. According to evidence brought out at a hearing before Burgess Risbeck, Fowler said things which Morgan did not fancy, and results were obvious. Fowler's fine was $5.00 and costs, and Morgan's was $3.00 and costs.

FATHER AND SON HELD FOR COURT ON ASSAULT CHARGE

Father Must Undergo Trial For Interferring With Officer.

BAIL IS FIXED AT $300

Said to Have Laid In Wait For P. R. R. Detective, J. A. Henderson.

Charged by P. R. R. Detective J. A. Henderson of Charleroi with assault and battery, James Brown 19 years old and his father A. B. Brown charged with interfering with an officer, were held for court this morning under $300 bail by Justice of the Peace Rice.

It is alleged that on Saturday afternoon Henderson arrested the young man for trespassing on the railroad in compliance with rules recently issued by the company. On Saturday night it is claimed the father and son and a younger son, laid in wait for Henderson on McKean avenue, and when he came along assaulted him, and while one held him, the other two beat him. As a result of the fracas Detective Henderson has a bad looking face today.

At the hearing this morning, Lieutenant of Police W. J. Davis of Pittsburg was present as well as other Pennsylvania railroad detectives.

Want Immigration Laws Changed So There Will be Better Distribution of Foreigners Coming to America.

MANY DELEGATES PRESENT

At a meeting of the Pittsburg district of the North American Turn Verein society at Monessen yesterday, a resolution was formulated which will eventually be presented to the Pennsylvania Legislature, asking that laws governing immigration be adopted in this State. It is argued that now there is an unequal distribution of foreigners when they arrive in the United States and the present immigration laws are to blame. As a result it is stated there is a congestion in many places, which is to the detriment of the foreigners themselve, and American residents.

The convention at Monessen yesterday, which was held at the new Turner Hall, was attended by delegates from 28 societies, comprising 175 representatives. Including the ladies, and all who came, however there were nearly 300 present. The morning session at 10:30 o'clock and Dr. H. Groth of Allegheny spoke. John Dreiss of Monessen made the address of welcome.

A report was made that in the 28 societies represented there are 7,482 members at the present time. During the past year there was an increase in membership of 300 and an increase in property value of $33,000.

There were several delegates present at the meeting from Charleroi. Dinner and supper were served the delegates by the Monessen Turn Verein ladies.

BENCH WARRANT ISSUED FOR THE ARREST OF WARD

On motion of District Attorney C. L. V. Acheson the court Saturday directed that a bench warrant be issued for the arrest of Frederick Ward, the Pittsburg promoter, who was convicted of conspiracy at the November term to defraud the Bank of Coal Centre and serve a year and a half in the penitentiary. Ward took an appeal to the Superior court which sustained the lower court and directed the defendant to appear forthwith and be recommitted to serve out his term.

Over a month has elapsed and Ward has failed to appear. S. G. Walker of East Pike Run is on Ward's appeal bond, in the sum of $5,000.

As Others See Him.

That Congressman J. K. Tener's brief career in Congress has been productive of results, and his efforts highly appreciated by his constituents in general, is evidenced by the Donora American's estimation of his ability. The American says:

"Hon. John K. Tener has more than measured up to the expectations of his supporters who elected him to the office of representative. His appointment as a member of the Rivers and Harbors committee is the best evidence of his reception in the National body of lawmakers. His constituents did not expect him to go to Washington and unite with the Democrats in the House; to declare war on the party which inducted him into office, no more than did the people of Pittsburg expect Dalzell, Burke and Barchfeld to perform such a political flip-flop. The district might as well have no representation than have chosen a man who would have joined the insurgent element.

"Tener has allied himself with the majority which stands for progress and prosperity. Hence, he has been accorded recognition. The Rivers and Harbors committe has accomplished more actual good during the past two years than was performed in the previous decade. The Government is now practically committed to a feasible and practical policy of canalization of the great inland waterways, a policy that will add millions to the wealth of the great districts affected.

"The record of Tener as a staunch, regular Republican has been such that there was nothing left for a possible opponent but to become an anti-everything, which defines Kennedy's platform to the letter. The people of this great industrial 24th district want a man of progressive ideas in office, and not an obstructionist, or a dodger."

This is all the more reason why Congressman Tener should be returned to Congress. A representative not in accord with the majority of his party would not be able to command a place on the Rivers and Harbors bill, and a member in the eastern part of the State would give his district the preference in Pennsylvania's allotment of the appropriation.

More Care Necessary.

The automobile accident that occurred on our streets last evening is evidence that more care must be exercised in driving machines about the borough. Many new machines have been purchased this season in this immediate community, besides those that come in here from a distance, and Sunday in particular finds the thoroughfares more or less thronged with auto tourists. The unfortunate accident last night, which may or may not have been avoidable, is likely to be productive of serious results. By it a boy is likely to be maimed for life.

While there seems to be no general disposition on the part of auto owners to evade the speed limit requirements, the police should be unusually vigilant and rigidly enforce the ordinance, particularly on Sundays. In the exubrience of joy riding over well paved streets there are times when regulations and signals may be forgotten, and these are the cases the police need to look after.

Conservatism Needed.

In view of the social unrest and dissatisfaction that is beginning to be manifested to an unusual degree in various parts of this country, there never was a time when sane, sober thought and action were more imperatively needed than at the present time. With every sign and indication of a great era of industrial and commercial prosperity in store for the country, a strong under-current of popular dissatisfaction seems to be apparent.

This condition calls for conservative thought and action on the part of each individual. The high cost of living, the rapid pace of expenditure and the numberless demands that are made by society in every department of every day life, with the consequent complications and dissatisfaction, give rise to soriai agitations that if continued must result in more or less chaos. Conservatism is the remedy for these social ills, rather than radical action. It is radicalism in expenditures that has brought about this condition, and a continuation of the policy can only result in intensifying the situation. Sober thought will readily convince each individual that conservative action will mitigate many of the causes of individual discontent, and this practiced on the part of the people as a whole will accomplish infinetely more than radical social upheavals that the people in their discontent may bring about. The simple, not the strenuous, life is what is needed now.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

Dr. B. A. Booth, one of the Pittsburg Health Department physicians says: "If you have what seems to be a growth in the frontal sinuses as a result of this dust infection, that is in the hollow spaces between the outer and inner tables of the frontal bone, over the root of the nose, in main extending outward from behind the glabella to a variable distance above the orbit, and opening into the middle meatus of the nose on each side through the infundibula; or if there be a clogging of the eustachian tubes, which lead from the middle ear to the pharynx, communicating between the cavity of the tympanum and that of the mouth, the irritated mucous membrane of the pharnyx continuing through the tube and covered with ciliated epithelium, call a doctor at once." If that is the condition some people are in they had better call three doctors.
